

Donnie McKethan

Donnie McKethan, previously assigned to lead the successful Organizational Development Study for BGCGW as a Human Resources and Organizational Development Consultant, joined BGCGW as the Vice President of Human Resources in July 2007.

Donnie has a broad background in Human Resources which he gained through several years at IBM where he held several Human Resource management positions and most recently, the Institute for Defense Analyses where he was the Employee Relations and Employment Manager.

He has more than 30 years of experience in Organizational Development, Recruitment, and Training and Development. He also served on the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Washington NE/SE Board for 1 year.

In his spare time, Donnie is also a radio show host for the “Jazz and More” program on WPFW 89.3 FM.